

Dear Commission:

I urge that no changes be made to existing rules to media ownership. The basis of allowing change under the 1st Amendment's freedom of speech is baseless. Allowing continued consolidation of media by a handful of corporations limits the number of voices and opinions heard in the United States. Our Founding Fathers would have wanted a numerous and wide array of media ownership.

Sincerely,

Ian Lyman